- Silver award for Best Advance in Learning Technology Implementation, won jointly with Vector Solutions for the entry - Macrolearning to Microlearning: A Technology-Driven Transformation
- Bronze award for Best Learning Team, won jointly with Sydney Catholic Schools for the entry - Japanese Online Program

Harbinger's win was announced on August 22, 2019. The winners are listed at <http://www.brandonhall.com/excellenceawards/past-winners.php>.

Vikas Joshi, Chairman and CMD – Harbinger Group, is ecstatic. He said, "We are delighted with this victory. Our first Brandon Hall Group Excellence Award came through in 2017, it was a bronze award. We continued our winning streak with another bronze in 2018, and this year, we have broken all our previous records, winning four awards together, including a gold. It makes me feel so proud of our work and the workforce. I would also want to thank our customers who believed in us and trusted us with their mission-critical projects. It is definitely time for celebration."

Vikas added, "This win reiterates and strengthens Harbinger's vision of 'Transforming lives at every workplace'. Brandon Hall Group awards evaluate not just the learning program development process, but also the business results that the program achieved. Winning four awards with different clients endorses that our eLearning programs have helped in transforming lives at these workplaces."

Poonam Jaypuriya, Vice President – eLearning, Harbinger Interactive Learning, said, "Winning four Brandon Hall Group awards together is a testament to our continuous hard work and innovation. We couldn't be prouder. It feels amazing that Harbinger has been instrumental in building so many award-winning training programs. A big chunk of credit for this goes to our workforce."

Poonam added, "Generally, organizations are recognized for select competencies. Some are appreciated for being innovative and some are good with technology. But, Harbinger's award-winning entries boast of our expertise and capabilities in diverse areas, right from creativity and instructional strength to technology expertise. We make a great team internally and it only gets better when we join hands with our clients."

“Brandon Hall Group Excellence Awards Program has recognized leading organizations for the past twenty-plus years for the latest trends in Human Capital Management,” said Rachel Cooke, Brandon Hall Group COO and leader of the HCM Excellence Awards Program. “The initiatives that were honored are not only innovative but fit the unique needs of the business and create truly remarkable success stories.”

Award entries were evaluated by a panel of veteran, independent senior industry experts, Brandon Hall Group analysts and executives based upon the following criteria: fit the need, design of the program, functionality, innovation and overall measurable benefits.

Excellence Awards winners will be honored at Brandon Hall Group’s HCM Excellence Conference, February 4-6, 2020, at the Hilton West Palm Beach, Florida. Select winners also will serve as presenters in breakout sessions, sharing their leading practices during the conference.

“The HCM Excellence Awards recognize programs that measurably benefit organizations,” said Mike Cooke, Brandon Hall Group CEO. “Many human capital management departments are unable to confirm that their initiatives help the business’s bottom line. Because we focus on measurable benefits, our awards program is universally recognized and highly prestigious.”
